

Guided Tour Information

Would you like to visit the Rega helicopter base Zurich with a group? Below you can find the most important information about our guided tours in Dübendorf.

- Programme:
- Presentation about Rega
 - Viewing of the base with the helicopter hangar
 - Viewing of the rescue helicopter (if not in operation)
 - Screening of the Rega film
- Duration: Approx. 1 1/2 hours
- Number of participants: Minimum 10, maximum 25 persons
- Minimum age: 10 years. School classes and groups of young people must be accompanied by at least two adults.
- Dates/Times: Monday to Friday, times by prior arrangement
- Booking: At least 6 – 8 weeks before the desired date.
Rega Centre Zurich-Airport, Tel. +41 44 654 32 06 (Tuesday – Thursday, 10.00am – 12.00 noon & 2.00 – 5.00pm). E-mail: visits@rega.ch
- How to get here: Bus. No. 756 from Dübendorf railway station (exit „Süd“) in the direction of „Gfenn“ to the „Schossacher“ stop. From the bus stop, walk northwards to the roundabout (with an insect sculpture), continue straight on (take care – there is no pedestrian crossing!), turn left onto the street that runs parallel to Überlandstrasse, and on to the Rega base. The walking distance is around 300 metres.
- There are a limited number of car and bus parking spaces available (be sure to only use the parking spaces directly next to the helicopter base). You can find a map and directions on how to get here at: access.rega.ch.
- Cost: Guided tours are free of charge. However, if you cancel your tour less than one week before the booked date, an administration fee of CHF 170.00 plus VAT will be charged.
- Donations: Would you like to support our work? Whether big or small – we are grateful for every single donation. Many thanks!
- Special remarks: The directions of the tour guides must be followed at all times.
- In the event of a mission or unforeseen incident, tours can be delayed, postponed, discontinued or cancelled at short notice.
- Animals are not permitted at the Rega bases.
- Unfortunately we are not able to provide any food or refreshments.
